

7TH ACM INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON AI IN FINANCE

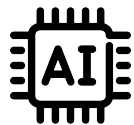

The Future of Artificial Intelligence in Global Finance

Join researchers, practitioners, and innovators in Milan to explore the frontiers of AI, from Deep Learning to Computational Economics.

Introduction to ACM ICAIF

The ACM International Conference on AI in Finance (ICAIF) is the first peer-reviewed scholarly conference that brings together researchers and practitioners from academia, industry and government to share challenges, advances, and insights on the impact of Artificial Intelligence (AI) in Finance

ICAIF invites high-quality research paper submissions that connect AI and Finance from both methodological and applicative perspectives

ICAIF aims to foster interaction between research and implementation, regulation and innovation

ICAIF is supported by the Association for Computing Machinery (ACM)
